1. OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this Crime Prevention Policy is to establish the guidelines on which the adoption, implementation and operation of the Prevention Model of Salmones Aysén S.A. is based, in accordance with the provisions of Chilean Law No. 20,393 on Criminal Responsibility of Legal Persons and all its amending laws.

2. SCOPE

The scope of this Policy considers Salmones Aysén S.A., hereinafter and indistinctly “Salmones Aysén” or the “Company”.

3. DEFINITIONS

- 3.1. Extractive activities without aquaculture concession, in areas of management and exploitation of benthic resources: This crime is committed by anyone who carries out extractive activities in areas of management and exploitation of benthic resources, without being the holder of the rights referred to in the final paragraph of the Article 55 B of the Chilean General Law on Fisheries and Aquaculture (GLFA). (Article 139 bis, GLFA).
- 3.2. Disloyal administration: The one who, being in charge of the safeguarding or management of the patrimony of another person, or of any part of it, by virtue of the law, an order of the authority or an act or contract, causes damage, either by abusively exercising powers to dispose of it or compel it, or by executing or omitting any other action in a manner manifestly contrary to the interest of the owner of the affected property (Definition according to article 470 number 11 of the Chilean Penal Code).
- 3.3. Misappropriation: This crime is committed by anyone who, to the detriment of another, appropriates or diverts money, effects or any other movable property that they have received in deposit, commission or administration, or by another title that produces an obligation to deliver or return it (Definition according to article 470 number 1 of the Chilean Penal Code).

3.4. Code of Ethics and Conduct: Guide for the members of the Board of Directors, managers, deputy managers, executives and all workers, regardless of their hierarchical rank, which promotes conduct based on rectitude and honesty, in each of their actions.

3.5. Bribery: Commits the crime of bribery:

3.5.1. Whoever gives, offers or agrees to give an economic or other benefit to a public official, for the benefit of the latter or a third party, due to the official's position under the terms of the first paragraph of article 248, or so that such official may carry out the actions or incur in the omissions indicated in articles 248. (Definition according to the Chilean Penal Code Article 250).

3.5.2. Whoever, with the purpose of obtaining or maintaining for himself or for a third party any business or advantage in the field of any international transactions or an economic activity carried out abroad, offers, promises, gives or consents to give to a foreign public official an economic benefit or of another nature for the latter or a third party, due to the position of the official, or for him to omit or execute, or for having omitted or executed, an act of his office or with infraction of the duties of his position, (Definition according to the Chilean Penal Code, Article 251 bis).

3.5.3. The public official who requests or accepts to receive an economic benefit or of another nature for him or for a third party to commit any of the crimes or misdemeanors expressed herein, or in paragraph 4 of Title III, will be sanctioned with the penalties of minor confinement in its maximum degree to greater confinement in its minimum degree, of perpetual absolute disqualification for public positions or offices and a fine of four times the benefit requested or accepted. If the benefit is of a nature other than economic, the fine will be from one hundred fifty to one thousand five hundred Unidades Tributarias Mensuales (Monthly Tax Units). (Definition according to Chilean Penal Code Article 249).
